The Hoschton Mayor and City Council are pleased to announce the appointment of Kristen A. Smith as the new City Clerk. Kristen will begin work for the City within the next two weeks. We hope everyone will support and help Kristen as she takes on this new challenge.

Kristen lives in the Hoschton area with her husband, Steve, and stepdaughter, Caroline. She has lived in Georgia and the Hall County area since 1977. She graduated from North Georgia College and State University with a bachelor's degree in Business Management. Kristen has worked in the financial industry 17 years with her primary focus on business banking.
